- Supports an inclusive educational environment. Serves as a resource to teachers with children with disabilities in their classrooms. Helps staff resolve problems related to the participation of students with disabilities in appropriate learning activities.
- Prepares the assigned classroom or instructional area. Develops written lesson plans that align with state academic content standards, the district's adopted courses of study/curriculum goals, and IEP objectives.
- Evaluates the academic needs of students. Develops meaningful educational activities that engage and stimulate student learning. Varies instructional techniques to address diverse learning styles.
- Helps students take full advantage of the learning environment (e.g., use of instructional/media resources, access/proximity to activities, etc.). Provides accommodations as needed (e.g., differentiated curriculum, extended time, study guides, reading/transcribing assistance, etc.).
- Communicates expectations, provides guidance, and shows an active interest in student progress.
- Facilitates self-reliance, problem-solving, critical-thinking, creativity, and performance skills.
- Plans collaborative learning activities that encourage and support positive peer relationships.
- Upholds the student conduct code. Implements effective pupil management procedures. Maintains a positive learning environment. Helps parents/students understand academic objectives, behavioral standards, and performance expectations.
- Consults with support personnel to address student concerns (e.g., excessive absences, at-risk behavior, mental/physical health, family/peer relations, etc.).
- Collaborates with staff to implement and monitor behavior management plans when required.
- Meets mandated paperwork deadlines.
- Proctors district testing activities as directed. Upholds security procedures. Helps students with content-area preparation activities.
- Maintains accurate records and submits reports on time.
- Evaluates student achievement/performance. Prepares progress reports. Consults with parents as needed.
- Respects personal privacy. Maintains the confidentiality of privileged information.
- Promotes the proper use, care, and security of school property.

- Takes precautions to ensure safety. Monitors situations that may indicate a problem. Provides appropriate student supervision. Works with supervisors to manage or eliminate risk factors.
- Reports suspected child abuse and/or neglect to civil authorities as required by law.
- Supervises non-classroom activities when assigned.
- Participates in staff meetings, conferences, and other required school activities.
- Encourages parent organizations and supports school-sponsored activities.
- Pursues growth opportunities that enhance professional performance and advance district goals.
- Strives to develop rapport and serves as a positive role model for others.
- Provides prompt notification of absences. Ensures that student lists and teaching materials are readily available for substitutes.
- Maintains a professional appearance. Wears work attire appropriate for the position.
- Performs other specific job-related duties as directed.

Abilities Required: The following personal characteristics and skills are important for the successful performance of assigned duties.
