-over for details-

Dear Parents,

I am considering this a “win”!

Miss Claypool and Superintendent Hoffman have worked to allow us the opportunity to show off what our Triad Elementary Cardinals have been learning in music.

We chose the last day of school as the date so that we could have a relaxing, park concert experience.

The idea is: you come a little early with your family, set up blankets and lawn chairs and maybe have a picnic supper on the lawn. Then, you finish eating while you watch the concert.

I realize we are competing with ball schedules and of course, work.

My thinking is this:

1. This is only happening ONE evening this year.
2. Music is a co-curricular subject (meaning: required)
3. This is like the culminating event of a year long project to learn how to play and perform music.

The students are more than excited to share their finished projects. They have done an amazing job! I am considering this a test grade for attendance. Limited exceptions may apply at Mrs. Sapp's discretion.

I can't wait to see you all!
